SEN

Rose Anne,

Thanks for all the great fun we had in Dunkleberger's class (especially falling down the hills!) I'll always remember those "easy" tests! Thanks for being a wonderful friend, Rose Anne. I'll never forget these past two years at St. Joe (and probably the next two, too)!
Love you always,
Laure

Rose Anne McCabe

Dear Rose Anne,
Well, here we are 10 years, and I'm glad I met you and here's a bit of advice from your great-great grandpa to tell me that you should follow "Good bread, good meat! You're neat! Don't cheat! And keep your feet! (out of puddles)"

Rose Anne,

you are the sweetest person I've ever met in my life and I mean that quite sincerely. And you are also the cutest little chick wench that I've ever met in my life. What ever you do don't change the way you are. You are a very special person and there aren't very many people like you in the world. I also wish that we had at least one class together this year. I miss not having you around in class to talk to and visit with. ~~well~~ We had better have at least one class (or lunch) together next year. But even if we don't I hope that you and I can remain friends for a very long time. If I had more friends like you my life would be so much better. Thanks for everything Rose, I really do love ya for it.

Love,

Erica

SAINT JOSEPH'S HIGH SCHOOL, SOUTH BEND, IND.

We Come Of Age

As freshmen, we enter St. Joe wondering what the year holds in store for us. What will our classes be like? Will we make new friends? What clubs should we join? The year passes. Sometimes we are surprised; sometimes we are discouraged. But we find our place at St. Joe and grow accustomed to the life here. We become a part of St. Joe.

Yet every year, we return to school filled with anticipations and questions. Will we renew old acquaintances? Will we find new friendships too? Will we have the same teachers? Will our teams win tournaments and championships? Will the school be changed any? There are so many things to be accomplished and so many decisions to be made. We will learn to accept challenges and cope with difficulties. We will work to make our dreams become realities.

As seniors, we prepare to leave St. Joe. It has not been easy, but we have managed to meet the demands placed upon us and still enjoy our years in high school. We have become proud of ourselves, our class, and our school. We have weathered the years and we are pleased with the results. We have arrived and we will not turn back. For certainly, we have come of age.

Beginnings

This past year was one of beginnings and welcome changes.

On the local scene, Democrat bill Richardson was chosen as the new sheriff after Ralph DeMeyer was convicted of extortion.

The newly-opened Marriott Hotel downtown was a welcome change from the "big hole" on which it was built. This has made several hundred new jobs available to South Benders, and is a good beginning to the eventual restoration of downtown.

Notre Dame football also got a new leader this fall. Gerry Faust became the new Irish head coach, replacing Dan Devine. His team's record was 5-6, Notre Dame's worst in many years. But when he came, he brought with him the enthusiasm that had been missing previously.

Nationally, the space shuttle was a great feat for the U.S. We became the first country to launch something into space, to have it return, to be used again.

Top: Ronald Reagan began his term with a lot of promises, and many of these were carried out in his drastic changes in this country's economic policies.

Left: The new downtown Marriott is expected to be a great asset to South Bend.

Right: County sheriff Ralph DeMeyer was convicted of extortion and replaced by William Richardson.

Top: The space shuttle Columbia was a great success and instilled a great amount of pride in the American people. Left: Even though his first year as head coach was not as successful as he'd have liked, Gerry Faust rarely lost his smile. Right: It took a year, but the WVNU radio and television stations finally were able to move into their new building.

As in the past year, St. Joe has been an ever changing community. Not only has there been a change in teachers, but also in the actual building. Some of these changes are the remodeling of the cafeteria, which includes a new floor and ceiling, the addition of more computers, and the remodelling of the newspaper office. Among these changes, however, some of the major differences are the addition of the bookstore which is managed by Mr. Larry Shead, the re-location of the business office, and to the teachers' pleasure, the addition of a new teachers' lounge. The bookstore is a change which is accepted well by the students because it gives them the opportunity to buy school essentials throughout the year.

The theology department has been through many changes this year. The chapel has a new minister and teacher, Father Darryl Rybicki. Father Rybicki has also seen many changes since his arrival at St. Joe. For example, the rearrangement of the chapel pews which allows more students to attend masses. Also, there has been a lot of effort to make the all school masses more beautiful with the addition of new furniture and decorations. Mrs. Tracy Sandman, as of this year, also has been appointed the position of organizing the retreats.

As a general rule, most changes require readjustments, however, the students and faculty have found these recent changes at St. Joe make school life more convenient and enjoyable.

This year's fall play, "The Diary of Anne Frank," was directed by Mrs. Jane Syburg. It was held at the Saint Mary's O'Laughlin Auditorium on October 22, 23, and 25. Andrea Goulet, a talented freshman, played the leading role of Anne Frank. Otto Frank, Anne's father, was played by Mark Geissler, and Edith Frank, her mother, was played by Ann Walton. The other members of the cast included Katie Garvey, Tom Houk, Jay Lewis, Rebecca Goerner, Doug Graczyk, Sarah Bradley, and Dave Wallace.

The tone of the play, unlike past years, was serious. It was chosen to bring to mind the tragic reality of the 1940's. Another reason this serious play was chosen was due to the availability of funds.

Playoff Hopes Come Of Age

Despite being denied participation in the state playoffs after two consecutive 10-0 seasons, the 1981 football team fought its way to a third undefeated season, a 31-game winning streak and, most importantly, a playoff berth.

Sparked on by an enormous and enthusiastic crowd, Coach Phil Teegarden's Indians battled Fort Wayne Snider. Visions of a state championship ended in overtime, however, as the Indians bowed to a fine Snider team, 16-13.

As expected, several members of the team received high recognition for their individual talents and achievements. The Associated Press All-State team included nine St. Joe players. First Team selections were Mario Zappia, Dennis Goralski, and James Reiner; John Glon earned Second Team honors; Dale Scott, Rich Was, and Jeff Monhaut were Third Team selections; and Mike Carmola and Tom Klimek received Honorable Mention. The Indians were even recognized nationally as Jim Reiner and Dale Scott, "The Touchdown Twins," were featured in Sports Illustrated Magazine.

This is a tribute, then, to all those involved with the 1981-82 football team, who brought so much pride to St. Joe.

Show Your Spirit!

Monday one saw the familiar faces of Radar and Klinger roaming the halls. M*A*S*H was the theme and the senior army was determined to win the spirit war. Tuesday one would think the juniors had gone back to the cradle. The theme was "Beating Knights is like taking candy from a baby," and their hall was "sweet." The sophomore movie buffs said Knights would be "Gone with the Wind." The freshmen said the Knights were gambling with their lives with a "1920's" theme. True spirit was shown as a different team was honored each day.

More Than Just A

Football Game

The halls were decorated, the court was selected, and St. Joe spirit was at a peak. All that was needed was a win over Marian to make the 1981 Football Homecoming perfect. The football team more than accomplished this task overpowering the Knights 31-0. The first half was a time of suspense for the crowd and the court. The high point of the half-time activities was the presentation of the student-elected court, which included Terri Austin and Jay Lewis, Becky DeLeu and George Carlin, Jody Megyese and T.J. Ahearn, Amy Oswald and W.R. Mack, Trice Rose and Kelly Coleman, Monica Walters and Mark Geissler, and Chris Witucki and Kevin Gibbons. The suspense finally ended when Becky DeLeu and Kelly Coleman were announced queen and king.

After the game, many students returned to the school cafeteria, celebrating the victory with a pizza party.

Campus Ministry Alive And Well At St. Jo

St. Joseph's is a unique high school because support is given not only to the intellectual and physical lives of the students, but also to their spiritual and religious lives. This support at St. Joe is directed through the Campus Ministry Department, which is responsible for the school masses and overnight retreats. In the 1981-82 school year they have been very successful in fulfilling the spiritual needs of the students. This success is evident in the large participation of the student body in the programs available to them. Working in union with Campus Ministry, students are involved in the Liturgical Planning Committee, the Liturgical Music Group, the Retreat Planning Committee, and as Eucharistic ministers, lectors, and acolytes for masses. One of the highlights this year was Bishop McManus' visit on the feast of St. Joseph. The bishop spent the day visiting with students and faculty.

Right: St. Joe NHS members gather with representatives from area schools during the NHS Exchange Day.

During the 1981-82 school year, several St. Joe organizations donated their time and effort to serving the St. Joe community and other causes. The members of the National Honor Society provided tutoring to fellow students. The volunteers worked throughout the year offering tutoring each day of the week, all day long, in every subject from Spanish to Calculus. The NHS volunteers found the service rewarding, and agreed that it was a good way to share their talents. At the end of the year, the St. Joe NHS conducted a forum for area chapters to meet and discuss methods and goals. The Exchange Day brought representatives from several high school and was a big success. Hopefully, it is the start of a new tradition.

Another St. Joe group committed to service has been the Hunger Abolition Corps. Moderated by Mr. Matt Reynolds and led by president Mary Kay O'Connell, the group organized the Thanksgiving Food Drive, which included a hunger awareness program, the Community Day of Fast, and a collection of money and food donations used to feed thirty needy families in South Bend. The group received over 1,000 in total contributions, which was used to buy fresh food for the families, and the remainder was donated to an overseas charity.

A third group serving the community has been Mrs. Ciretta Coty's Environmental Problems classes. In addition to classroom studies, the students planted trees on school grounds, organized a trash pick-up program, and raised money through bake sales to save American eagles. In conjunction with these projects, the students used p.a. announcements and amusing quizzes to increase public awareness and knowledge of the problem of endangered species. Their hard work paid off, as they were recognized by the Indiana Wildlife Federation for their efforts.

Another, less visible, group of students directed their efforts to planning and presenting a program in honor of Black History Month. Speakers from the community were brought in to address students on the issue of black significance in society. The program was well received and informative to all.

"School Isn't Everything"

Top — Lloyd Ketchum works as a lifeguard during the summer. Below — Grocery bagger Brian Dougherty flashes his courteous smile to Martin's customers.

Many St. Joe students excel not only in their academics, but also in our community. After the 3:05 bell, we are all dispersed, heading out into the directions our own lives take us. For some, the final bell of the school day means only the beginning of the work day. They are the ones who, realizing present economic difficulties, or just needing spending money, have found themselves after-school jobs. Oftentimes one is pleasantly surprised, when stopping by a grocery store or fast-food place, to find a fellow classmate smiling at them from behind the counter.

For other St. Joe students, free time means relaxation, and a time to pursue one's own special interests. And our St. Joe family is one containing a great deal of variation in interest and talents. We have professional singers, ballerinas, competing swimmers, water-skiers, life guards, disc jockeys, soccer players, actors, actresses, artists, and assorted musicians.

Still others have given of themselves and their time in service to those less fortunate. Many St. Joe students have been volunteers at the Children's Hospital, CANCO, Camp Millhouse, and hospitals, to name just a few places.

All of these students have truly put forth great effort in making our South Bend community a much more happy and spirit-filled place.

Homecoming '82

This year's homecoming basketball game was played against Whiting. Although the game was lost, the night was hardly a loss for the new homecoming king and queen. Traditionally, the homecoming queen and king are announced during the half-time of the game after being elected by the student body the previous day. Sue Mullen was elected to be the year's basketball homecoming queen and Jim Reiner was elected king. Members of the court were Angel Pimpanella, Michelle Lichtenberg, Ann Leader, Julie Stephenson, Monica Wynen, Mike Carmola, Rich Was, Brian McMahon, Dennis Goralski, and David Petsche. As in the past, the election of the court, the queen, and king was difficult for the students, but the game and the elections proved to be a fun time for all — especially the new king and queen.

"Side By Side"

This year St. Joseph High School presented a musical review, "Side by Side" which included four skits linked together by song and dance numbers. Directed by Barbara Jemielity, the play was presented on March 5, 6, and 7 of 1982.

Katie Garvey, as the Fairy Godmother helped bring the scenes together and explained them to the audience. "The Playmate scene" which was first, illustrated life as a child. In "Love is a Fallacy" John Blakey, Justin Geissler, and Ellie Shook showed what it is like to be a teenager. In "The Way Out Cinderella" Tom Houk was the king, Doug Graczyk played the prince, and Colleen Goddard became the modern day Cinderella. The last scetch was "Second Honeymoon," which starred Ann Walsh and Mark Geissler.

For The Fun Of It!

The intramurals sports program provided a lot of good competition and fun this year for all who participated. The program included football, basketball, volleyball, bowling, and softball leagues. Almost as important as actual performance seemed to be the team nicknames. Participants displayed a lot of creativity with such names as "The Plastic Surgeons" (who specialize in "face jobs"), "Blood Sweat and Beers," "Bubba's Warriors," and "Dukes of Earl," who were the basketball champs.

With the help and hard work of faculty moderator Mr. Tom Gerencher and student director Tom Seitz the program turned out to be a big success. It provided an opportunity of non-varsity competition for those who participated, and a lot of entertainment for the crowds who showed up to cheer their favorite teams.

Roughing It

Year after year dozens of St. Joe students have gotten together in the summer to make a pilgrimage to the Quetico National Forest Reserve in Canada. What is it that compels these ordinary city kids to leave their homes and venture into the vast unknown? It is not the eighty pound backpacks, the long muddy portages, or the wet sleeping bags. What the Canadian wilderness trip does offer the students is a challenge. The campers prove that they can live without any modern conveniences. They can survive the most primitive conditions. They can overcome rain and heat and dried chili con carne dinners. The campers spend their days canoeing, swimming, sunbathing, or cooking out. Life is simple in the Quetico and the students enjoy the freedom and beauty of the outdoors. Most people wouldn't want to spend too long in the Quetico, but it is an adventure not soon forgotten and a vacation experience rarely duplicated.

Honors Night '82

Now the effort all seems worth it: the late nights, the hours in the library, the backpack stuffed with books all seem worth while. Tuesday, May 11, Faculty, Family, and Friends gathered in the school gym to honor students who achieved levels of academic excellence. Students received recognition for competitions, scholarships, and community awards as well. Special recognition was given to James Lewis, who received the Principal's Award, Margaret Hill, who gave her salutatory address on Honors night, and Joseph Fink, the Valedictorian of the class of 1982.

The "Blizzards" Of 1982

The winter of '81-'82 was a severe one for Michiana residents. Not many records for temperature and snowfall were set, but the winter was special because the cold and snow lasted for so long. During January and February it seemed that every weekend was ruined by heavy snowfall and storms. But this was good news for skiers and other winter sport lovers, and even for St. Joe students, because it usually meant "no school on Monday."

Memories In The Making

The 1982 Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 8 at the Vineyard Room in the Ramada Inn. After some 150 couples arrived in their formal attire, they were able to enjoy an evening of dancing with music provided by "Moonlight." The dance floor was the most crowded when the band played "The Best of Times," the theme for the Prom. Any observer could surely tell by the faces of the couples that a night such as prom is indeed the best of times. The romance and festivities for the evening provided an excellent ending to the school year for all who attended.

The "Epidemic"

Senioritis, the annual epidemic, once again took its toll on the class of '82. This disease is noticed by the incredible yearning to be out of doors, preferably on the beach, and an intense apathy toward books, tests, and term papers. Seniors of past classes gave in to this yearning by heading to the beach on Senior Skip Day, but this year's day on the beach had a different twist. Seniors were warned that a skip day might extend the length of time that they would have to attend classes. Because of this conflict, seniors and the faculty worked for several hours on an alternative to skip day. The alternative day was to be called Senior Unity Day and its purpose was to unite the senior class before graduation. The day's schedule consisted of a mass, time for refreshment, and then time on the beach. Seniors and faculty members found that this compromise proved to be a great success.

Senioritis takes its greatest toll on the last day of school. To celebrate their grand exit, many seniors loaded up the buses and headed to King's Island amusement park for a night of fun and action. Most of the seniors who did not go to King's Island found their way to the beaches for a sunfilled day of excitement. All of the seniors, but especially the members of the O.P.E.C. team, made sure that the class went out with a bang and that they would not soon be forgotten.

Seniors Come Of Age

On May 20 and May 21, the Class of '82 formally completed its education at St. Joe. The Baccalaureate Mass was held, according to tradition, at Sacred Heart Church. Bishop William McManus was present, as well as clergy from several area parishes. The sentimental mass was highlighted by the bishop's comments to the graduating seniors. A strong sense of unity was felt throughout the class.

The commencement exercise were held in the Notre Dame A.C.C. Mr. Rich DeVos, president of Amway Corporation, spoke to the graduates, promoting American values and the system of free enterprise. Mr. DeVos was an entertaining speaker, and he inspired many with his positive outlook on the future. After his speech, Mr. DeVos received a plaque from the senior class in appreciation for his words. In the same tone, senior class president Jack Flock read a congratulatory letter from President Ronald Reagan. The traditional valedictory address was given by Joe Fink. He both entertained the audience and instilled in the seniors a sense of unity as he recalled highlights of the years at St. Joe. And he reminded everyone that "Faith can move a mountain, or a pink elephant, as the case may be." Finally, the graduates received their diplomas from Mr. Rousey and Mr. Edward Kalamaros, who was also recognized for his service as president of the Board of Education. And as the new alumni filed from the auditorium, they knew that they had come of age.

Indians Earn

The 1981 football team accomplished what seemed impossible: a third undefeated season. The work began with summer work-outs, but it paid off. From the opening game in mid-August, throughout the season, and up to the ultimate challenge of Ft. Wayne Snider, Coach Teegarden's Indians fought to win. In order for a team to be so successful, individual efforts must be united for a common goal. At the annual football banquet, many of these individuals were rewarded for their contributions. Rich Was and Tom Klimek were honored as Defensive Backs of the Year; Dennis Goralski and Jeff Monhaut as Linebackers of the Year; Tom Kuspa as outstanding Defensive Lineman; Brian Wroblewski as Special Teams player of the Year; John Glon and Paul Brady as Offensive Lineman; Greg Grohowski and Mario Zappia as outstanding Receivers; and Dale Scott and James Reiner as Offensive Backs of the Year. James Reiner, who co-captained the team with Rich Was, received the Kiwanis Award.

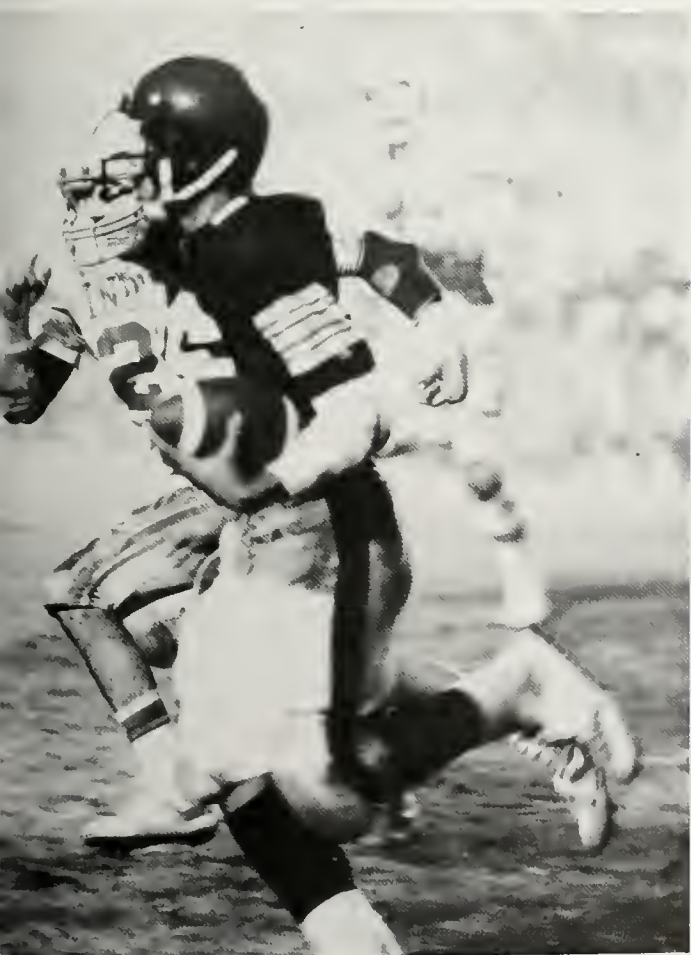

Even with as many talented players as the Indians had, a team cannot succeed without exceptional coaching. Coach Phil Teegarden supplied that excellence, earning recognition as the Metro Coach of the Year.

This year's B-Team football team fought to a 4-3-1 season. They started off on the wrong foot, losing to a tough Michigan City team in overtime, but they revenged that close loss with a close win over Jimtown later in the season. The team was captained by Mike McNeill and Matt Roberts, and shows enough talent to insure a good varsity season next year.

Fr. Bly worked his magic again this year, coaching the freshman team to a 7-2 record. He was assisted by Mr. Mark Johnson, and their only losses went to talented LaSalle and Mishawaka teams. Chris Was and Brian Jankowski co-captained the freshmen.

A Season Of Transition

The '81 season was filled with changes and close calls. Changes in coaches mid-way through the season caused much confusion, with Mark Gyslink moving on to the Air Force. The team had a lot of close calls, losing three-set matches by only one to both Marian and Clay. The team never gave up though, and proved to be worthy of the challenge of revenging its defeat to Clay three weeks later.

The captains for the season were seniors Mike Abromowski and Mike Butler. Their final record at the end of the season was 7-8. Those who were honored by receiving awards were, Mike Abromowski, who received the most valuable player award, and Scott Ummel who was awarded as the team's most improved player.

Hard Work Pays Off At The Regionals

This year's cross country team compiled a 4-10 record. Although the number of actual wins was not markable, the team, under the coaching of Mr. Mark Meyers, always strived to do their best. These efforts were shown in the fact that Kris Baert went to the girl's regional competition. The team captains this year were seniors, Rick Linczer and Mark Laroche. There were two Most Valuable Runners: Kris Baert and Roswitha Wuhler. The Most Improved Runner award was given to Tom Withy.

Successful Seasons

The 1981 season was a very successful season for the entire volleyball team. The varsity were led by co-captains Mary Kay O'Connell and Amy Oswald. They brought home trophies from the Ben Davis, Chatard, and St. Joe tournies. Their season came to an early close in sectional play against a tough Adams team.

The B-Team, co-captained by Carolyn Kanopa and Sandy Zack, completed a tremendous season at 18-1. They won the B-Team invitational tourney by defeating Penn in the final round of play.

The freshman girls also achieved a season with only one loss. Captains Cindy Makowski and Cheryl Kazmierczak led the frosh team through a season highlighted with victories over many local teams.

Pin To Win!

More support from the student body, brought on by the campaigning of the coach, Mr. Bill Roggeman, for larger audiences at the meets, was achieved this year as the wrestlers went on to a semi-successful season. The varsity placed second in the sectionals and had five individuals go on to compete in the regionals. Three of these individuals went on to the semi-state competition: sophomores Loris Zappia and Kevin Kazmierczak and senior John Glon. The team captains were Paul Brady and John Glon who was also the most valuable wrestler and had the most falls and the most team points. Kevin Kazmierczak had the most takedowns and the most match points and the most dedicated wrestlers were Don Buczynski and Joe Rulli. B-team was 2-6 and the freshmen were 1-3.

St. Joe's Going Down To State!"

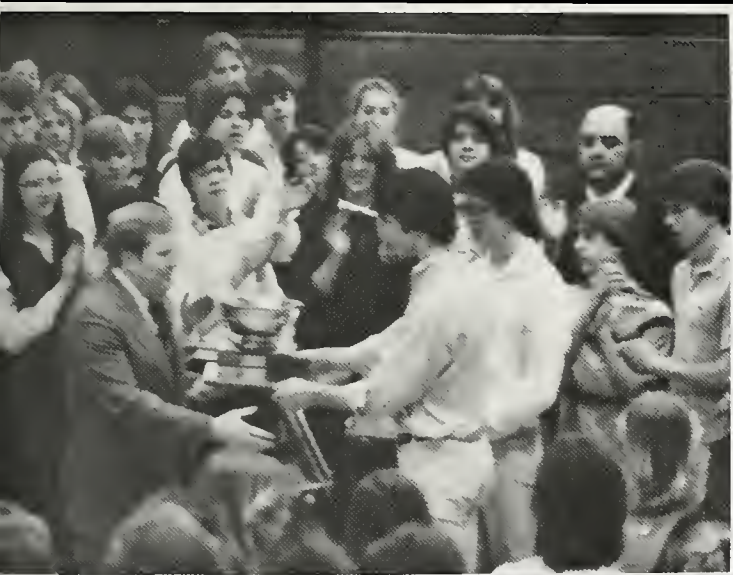

The 1981-82 hockey team had St. Joe's finest season since '72, capturing the runner-up spot in the IHSAA state championship playoffs. The team also swept the South Bend Holiday Tourney in December, and captured both the division and city titles in February to finish with a 26-0 league record. Coaches Dave Barnet and Mike Klosinski steered the team through a grueling 52-game schedule, finishing 46-6 overall with their disappointing loss to Culver in the championship game.

Sophomore Mike McNeill, the team's MVP, led the team, as well as the league, in scoring with a record-breaking 167 points, followed by Kevin Eastman, Chris Kleva, Andy Rhodes, and Brian Troester. Freshman goalie Joe Andrews kept the nets clean with a league-leading 7 shutouts. The team was captained by seniors Jay Lewis, Mike Milani, and Vic O'Block.

Players named for all-state teams include Andy Rhodes, Mike McNeill, Joe Andrews, and Jay Lewis. Lewis was also honored with the Matt Crace Mental Attitude award at the state tournament.

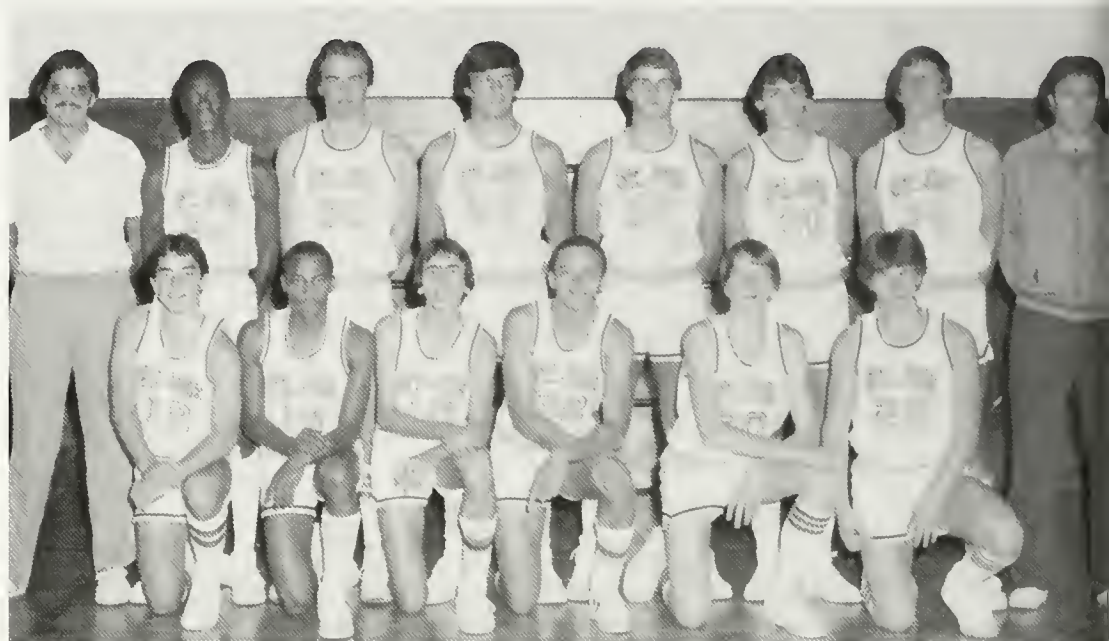

The B-Team, led by captains Dave Horvath, Connor O'Malley, and Rob Bogol, won their regular season championship, but were defeated 3-2 in the B-league playoffs.

Varsity Looks Back On A Rough Year

This year the basketball team faced a rough season. The Indians, coached by Mr. Rick Baumgartner, were lead by seniors Mario Zappia and Tony Willis. Juniors Mike Gibbons and Mike Wray helped in the effort. Although the record does not show it, every game was played tough and well. The highlights of the season included a game against the state champions Plymouth Pilgrims. The Indians fought till the end in a tough battle.

The Junior Varsity had the best record of all three teams at 12-7. Leading scorers Dave McMahon and Alfredo DiPinto lead the J.V. through wins over rivals Marian and Clay.

The Frosh, coached by a newcomer, Tim Dawson, had a rough season also. In the freshman tourney, they beat Adams to move into the finals; losing to the winners of the tourney in a well played game. Mark Sweet and Lee Cook led the team in scoring.

Next year's season looks promising for the J.V. and especially the varsity team, as they have eight returning players.

Frustrating Season

The trio of Larry Shead, Diane Fox, and Tom Veldman coached this year's Varsity Girls' Basketball team to a 6-11 record. The season began with an impressive 5-2 record, but the girls couldn't keep it up. They lost to city rival Riley once in the regular season and again in the first round of sectional play, ending their season. Junior Mary Borkowski and senior Sue Niezgodski co-captained the Indian squad. The two captains were recognized for several awards: Mary Borkowski received the MVP award while Sue Niezgodski received the mental attitude award and the Kiwanis award.

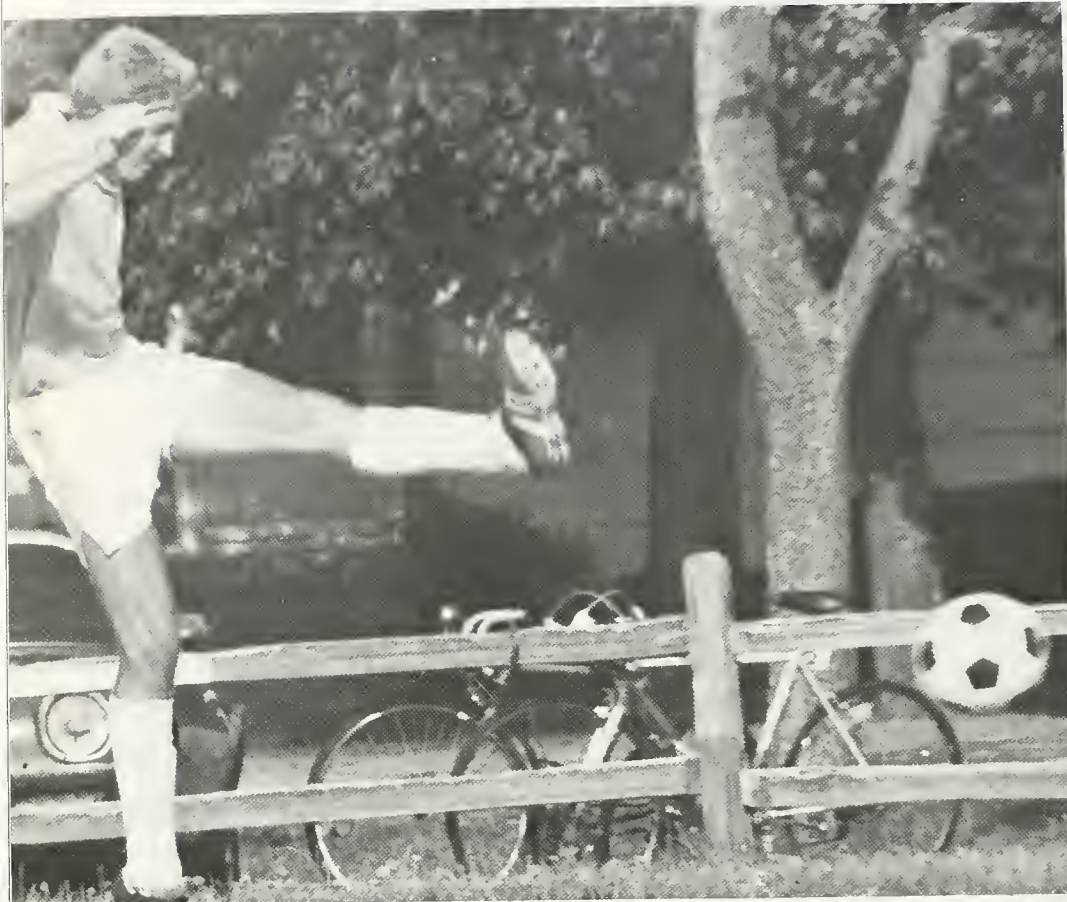

The most improved player award was given to Emilie Bauman. The B-Team finished with a 2-13 record, while the frosh played a tough 0-10 season. The players agree, however, that the records do not adequately represent the work, dedication, and spirit of the team and coaches.

St. Joe Soccer Wins It All!

The 1981-82 soccer team won it all this year, winning the championship in the St. Joseph Valley Conference. Their conference record remained undefeated Adams in overtime to gain the league title. They then went on to defeat Adams again in the finals of the city tournament, also in overtime.

The team, coached by Mr. Tom Van Meter, had a total record of 17-1-0 for the year, with their only loss coming early in the season to a tough Fort Wayne team. Seniors Dan McInerny, Vic O'Block, and Paul Brady offered leadership to the young team as tri-captains. Sophomore Bruce McCourt, although he was unable to play out the season because of injury, was awarded the MVP honors. Senior Paul Derwent received Kiwanis Award, the Coach's Attitude Award was given to senior Dan McInerny, and the Most Improved Player Award went to sophomore Pierre Crespo.

With a strong block of talented sophomores, the future for St. Joe soccer looks bright.

Baseball Fever . . .

The Varsity Baseball team had a successful season in '82 with a 12-11 record. One of the highlights of the season was the 22-8 win over Washington, who went on to play in the semi-state tournament. A disappointing loss went to rival Clay in the Colonial Classic, when the Indians lost the lead and were defeated 6-4. The season was ended when Washington revenged their loss earlier in the season and beat St. Joe 9-1 in the sectionals.

The team was captained by seniors Mike Carmola and John Mersits, who was also named the team's MVP. Junior Mike Gibbons had the best batting average, and the Indian Hustler Award went to senior Kelly Coleman.

This year's B-Team Baseball team, coached by Mr. Pat O'Neil, and Mr. Steve Austin, had a successful 12-4 season. The freshmen went 4-3. With these young players, the future looks promising.

Coach Diane Fox steered this year's softball team, St. Joe's largest ever, through a tough season. The team started the season on the right track, winning over top-ranked Riley 7-5. Other major victories came over Washington and Elkhart Memorial. The season was ended by Adams in the first game of sectionals. In that game, the Indians held the lead until the sixth inning, and the Eagles won it 8-6, bringing the season record to 8-10.

The team was captained by senior Jeanne Witucki and junior Angie VanOverburghe. Jeanne Witucki and sophomore Mary Rhoutsong shared the MVP award; Angie VanOverburghe received the mental attitude award for the second year in a row; and sophomore Carolyn Konopa received the Most Improved Player Award. With all but four players returning next year, experience should be a key in the near future of St. Joe softball.

Courting Success

This year's 1981-82 Girls' Varsity Tennis team had an exciting season highlighted with a victory in the South Bend Sectionals. Defeating Penn, Riley, and LaSalle, St. Joe went on to defeat rival Adams 3-2 in the championship game. The overall record for the successful season was 12-4. The season ended in a tough match against Culver with St. Joe defeated 4-3.

Honoring our most exceptional playes, several girls were presented with awards. The Most Valuable Player award went to Ann Curran, the Kiwanis award went to Terri Buszkiewicz, Colleen Hull received the Best Attitude award, and Megan Heller received the Most Improved Player award.

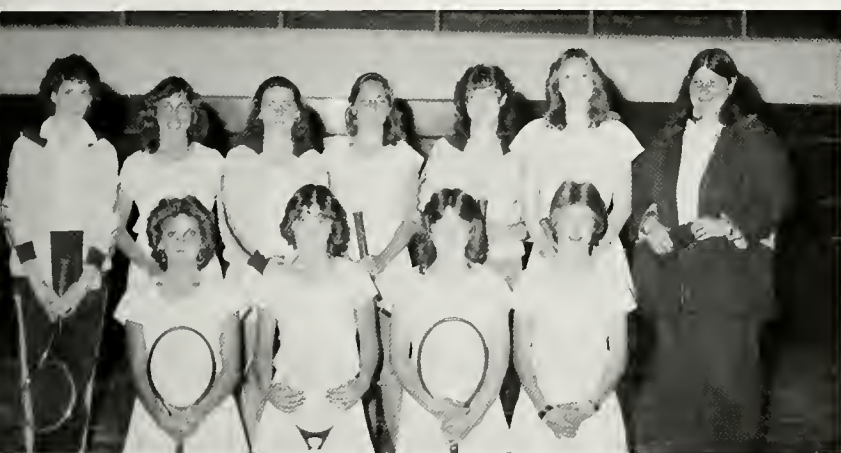

The Girls' B-team Tennis also had a terrific season with 14 wins, 0 losses, and 2 ties. This year, St. Joe hosted a B-team tourney with Elkhart Central, Adams, and Breman. Our team won with four first places and one second place. 1982-83 looks promising for Girls' Tennis!

Tough Competitors

The 1981-82 boys' track team was highly competitive again this season. The varsity team had its best season in twelve years, finishing with a record of four wins and four losses.

This year many members of the team qualified for sectionals. Matt Marz qualified in the high jump. Rich Was participated in three events; the long jump, 100 meter dash, and was part of the 400 meter relay team, which tied the school record at 45.4 seconds. Other relay team members were Jack Flock, Kevin Kusnerik, and Tilm Nelson. Kevin Kusnerik also qualified in the 200 meter run. Other qualifiers were Ed Reilly in the 800 meter, John Raven in the 1600, and John Glon in the shotput.

The girls' track team also provided stiff competition for all their opponents. Coach Sally Kindig formed the young team into a tough, aggressive unit. The girls ended the season with a 2-8 record with victories over Clay and Jimtown.

This year's captains were Tracey Niezgodski, Teresa Derrick, and Beth Haule. Teresa Derrick and Tracey Niezgodski both received the award for most valuable player. The Mental Attitude Award was given to junior Anne Marie Kulesa. The team celebrated the end of a year of hard work and achievement with a party at Tower Hill.

Golf

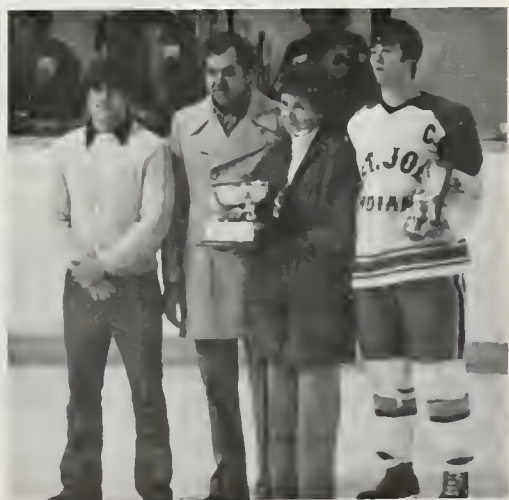

This year's golf team proved to have some very successful matches this spring, despite their overall 12-10 record. The most impressive match of the season came against Washington in which St. Joe won 301-351. In this match, captain Dave Wallace hit 69, Paul Szrom hit 75, Rob Kastens had a 78, and Chris Kleva hit 79. The season ended in the sectional tournament with tough battles, and finally victories, over such teams as Penn, Adams, Clay, and LaVille. And the Indians ended up as sectional champs. Paul Szrom And Dave Wallace shared the award for Most Valuable Player of the season. And Dave was also presented with the Joe Wilhelm Memorial Mental Attitude Award.

We've Got Spirit, Yes We Do!

Anyone who has spent time at St. Joe knows that the Indian spirit is something special. Several different things are needed to have school spirit: enthusiastic crowds, faculty, cheerleaders, and teams that never stop fighting. And St. Joe has had its share of winning teams this year: Football went undefeated, golf and girls' tennis won sectionals, soccer won the league championship, and hockey finished second in the state. And all the time, the St. Joe fans supported their teams.

Above left: Jay Sieradzki, Rich Tull, and Jean Kubsch cheer the Indians. Below left: Enthusiastic faculty and coaches like Mr. Shead help to spark spirit in the students. Backing up our outstanding football team and our basketball team this year were our spirited cheerleaders. Without their constant enthusiasm, pep assemblies and spirit would be minimal. Our cheerleaders devote much of their time to the spirit of St. Joe students because they know how much support means to our athletes. And whether "the battle is lost or won," the cheerleaders' goal is to "cheer them onward."

The cheerleaders' moderator this year was Mrs. Lightcap. Mrs. Lightcap put much effort into the cheerleading squad. Her concern was not only for the spirit of the student body, but also for the cheerleaders themselves. The cheerleaders were so appreciative of her help and concern that they called her "Mom!"

"Don we now our gay apparel," say Colleen Hull and Angie Wanberg.

Colette Patrice Bradley
1964-1981

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or the sword? In all these things we overcome because of him who has loved us. Neither death, nor life, nor things present, nor things to come, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:35-39

AMERIKA: for all of you it means home, but for me as an exchange student it means adventure. Every day I find myself in new situations.

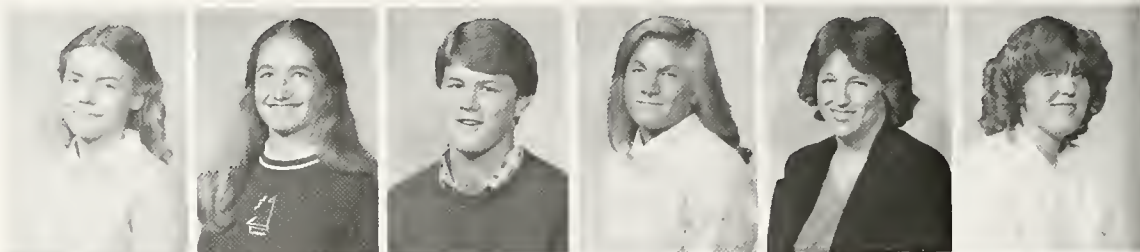

My normal schedule at my school in Germany was 7:30 a.m.-12:35 p.m. It has not been easy to get used to the St. Joe schedule, but I have found so many nice friends who have made these school days seem shorter than they are.

There are also so many interesting and creative activities here such as the fall play, fundraising for the prom, and homecoming week. The theology department organizes retreats, which are not part of the educational program in Germany.

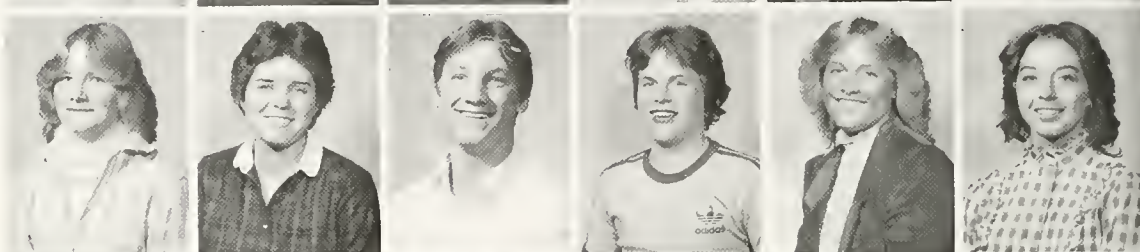

Another part of the school I enjoy is the athletic program. The cheer "We are the Indians!" will always mean to me that I have become a part of this student body.

N.H.S.

The National Honor Society has become very active in the St. Joe community. In addition to their student tutoring and library assistance programs, NHS sponsored an Interschool NHS Exchange Day. Several students were from five area high schools to spend the day at St. Joe and discover how other schools, and their National Honor Societies work.

This year the May induction was changed to December. And under moderator Mrs. Derwent, the membership grew to 68 members with the induction of eleven seniors and twenty juniors.

Hi-Way Staff

The yearbook staff hopes you enjoy your 1982 edition of the Hi-Way. We have attempted to put down in words and in pictures some things that cannot be properly communicated that way; the spirit that is St. Joe, and the overwhelming experience that is our high school years. These things must be lived in order to be understood.

Twenty years from now, you will use this book as a means of looking back on the days of high school, that time of both joy and sorrow, that time of finally coming of age.

To everything there is a season,
And a time for every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to reap;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

— Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Our time has come and we accept our calling. We turn and face the future as we come of age.

ROSEANNE!

10/7/82

I'M DATING THIS PAGE (NOT GOING OUT WITH IT! HEE HEE.) SO WHEN YOU'RE A DECREPID OLD GRANNY WITH ABSOLUTELY NO TEETH, YOU CAN WHIP THIS OUT AND CACKLE OVER HOW TOTALLY DUMB SOME OF US LOOKED AND ALL THE REAL GWAINT THINGS WE WROTE. (we're just too cool) THEN YOU'LL LAUGH SO HARD YOU'LL FALL ~~off~~ OFF YOUR ROCKING CHAIR AND DIE. (how cheery) That really was dumb, but who really cares, huh? Tell me that!! I'M ~~am~~ GOING TO TRY TO WRITE OVER THIS PAGE, SO YOU'D BETTER DO SOME EYE-BALL EXERCISES TO PREPARE YOURSELF!

Roseanne after reading what Cec wrote:

← wings

← Roseanne looks so chic in her western ruffle blouse.

AND TIM SAYS "DON'T WORRY BABY! I'LL SAVE YOU".
AND ROSEANNE SAYS "My hero", sigh.

YOU'RE SUCH A CUTIE AND A PRETTY COOL KID WHO DOESN'T "WIMP OUT" WHEN I START TEASING HER. ROSEANNE MCCABE - TUFF STUFF!!!

OH! I CAN NEVER THINK OF WHAT TO SAY!
(not that you're boring, I just have severe writer's block.)

Well, I GUESS I ACHIEVED THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM, (not ^{getting} a Brian Troester! really Rosie!) I FILLED UP THIS WHOLE PAGE. ANDREA AND I WILL HAVE TO TAKE YOU DOWN TO SAINT VINCENTS AND FIT YOU WITH A NEW WARDROBE. SEE YA' AROUND!
CECE!

P.s. - Try to calm down a little, woman! BERNIE!
(pretend that's a bell) Ha! I saw you jump! Really, take some Tylenol or something!!

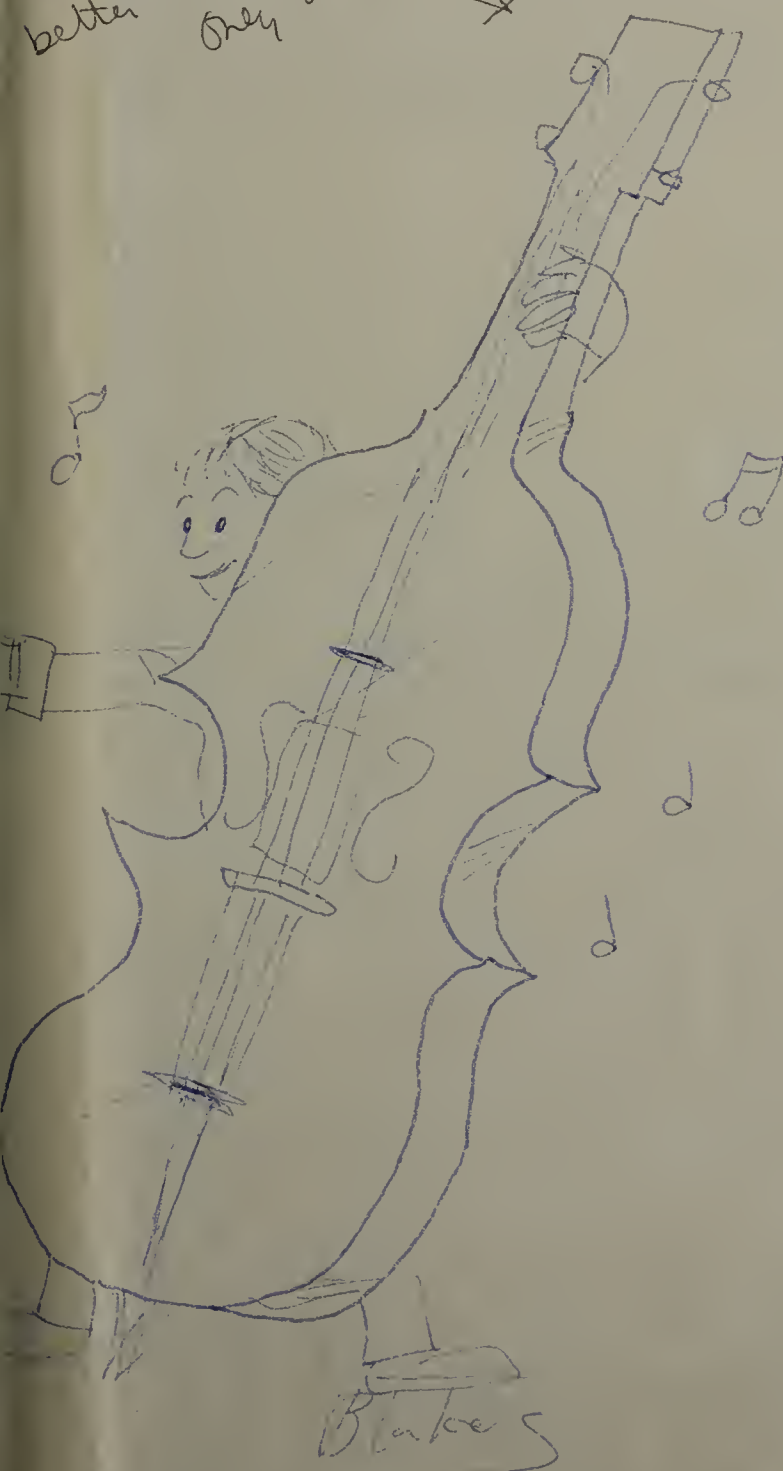

I wrote more on! cc, last!

Sorry, this page is so messy!

Hey Rox Anne,
 How it goin? Its really been great being one of your many friends. We've got to screw around some more in history. You're the only person
 I know that can play that oversized violin better than me (I have a hard time putting that thing under my chin. How do you do it!!!)
 Only one more year!!!

Roxi chloed baby
 Im glad we got to be friends in high school
 even though we didn't care too much for
 each other in 5th grade.
 Even though you're
 sometimes a sleazy wench ~~like~~, (just kidding). You don't reach my sleazy standards.

10/8/02

ROBIE -
 TO ACHIEVE WHAT HAS EVERYTHING!
 (well almost everything - she doesn't have a father + mother + siblings (or does she))
 You're a pretty girl she was up.
 I decided to write again
 because the first thing was the final message sent to me.
